1. Read and match.

Read the clues and draw a line to match the clue to the correct picture.

Clue 1

I enjoy making sculptures and painting pictures. I like to sculpt different creatures out of clay and paint people's portraits.

Who am I?

Clue 2

I like to have adventures on my bike. Sometimes, I get a puncture in the wheel.

Who am I?

Clue 3

I look after people who have been hurt. I use an x-ray machine to capture a picture of your bones. If you have fractured a bone, I help by putting a plaster cast on.

Who am I?

Clue 4

My job is to look after creatures and nature. I capture insects and creatures carefully, photograph them and let them go.

Who am I?

1. Read the story.

Highlight all of the words that contain the ture grapheme.

ture

Deep in the jungle, a creature ran through the trees. Jack tried to chase after it but it was too quick.

“Oh no!” he cried. “How will I capture a photo of it now?” Jack was a biologist and he loved nature and adventures. His job was to take photos of creatures. He was very dedicated and had once fractured his arm falling out of a tree. He had been trying to take a photo of a vulture so he could send the picture to the local newspaper.

Suddenly, he heard a noise. It was the creature he had been trying to find! This time, it stayed very still and Jack was able to capture lots of photographs of it. Once he had taken plenty of pictures, Jack headed back to camp on his bike but something didn't feel right.

“Oh no! There is a puncture in the wheel!” he exclaimed. “Oh well, at least I can take some more pictures while I walk back,” he chuckled to himself.

2. Write the words in a sentence.

Choose two words you have found and write them in a new sentence.
